

T&R PASTORAL PTY. LTD

"The Australian brand that stands for Total Reliability"

T&R Pastoral is internationally recognised as a leader in its field with an impeccable record of success. It is renowned for "total reliability" amongst its staff, the community and its business partners globally.

The company has invested heavily in its people over many years and similarly reinvests in keeping its facilities efficient and competitive within the global business arena. The family-owned group of companies boasts multiple processing plants and overseas distribution companies providing some of the world's finest meat products to high profile customers within Australia and internationally - across all sectors of the market.

With our head office located in Murray Bridge, within striking distance to all that South Australia has to offer (including the Adelaide central business district) the lifestyle possibilities are endless.

Commensurate with its growth the company is expanding its sales team and as such, several opportunities exist to join our multi-species sales & marketing team. We are seeking applications from dynamic individuals that share in our vision and are just as passionate about creating success.

International Marketing Manager - Beef

This pivotal role will report to and provide high level support to the Marketing Director and work closely with other managers and staff. We seek an experienced individual to take control of the beef marketing and sales development. Applications are encouraged from suitably experienced and results driven sales professionals accustomed to leading by example & maximizing revenue opportunities.

The successful candidate will demonstrate a hands-on active selling disposition with sound relationship building competencies and a passion for total customer satisfaction. An ability to think and act strategically, work smarter and not harder and prioritize and delegate where appropriate is required to achieve success in this role.

With production planning and inventory management responsibilities, an ability to identify opportunities for systems and process improvement would be expected. Other responsibilities include sound debtors management and the production of various management reports including best disposals, statistics & forecasts. The successful applicant will ideally have a minimum of five years experience in international trade in an executive sales position within the meat industry. An intricate understanding of the meat industry, its main markets, products and yields coupled with an ability to add to a diverse and profitable beef business across all categories is essential. A bottom line focus is paramount and expanding export chilled programmed sales the ultimate goal. An ability to seek new business and establish new programs and markets will be a key performance target for this position.

T&R are licensed to export to all markets including Malaysia and the EU with accreditations to produce for BRC, MSA, McDonalds, Burger King and CAAB.

If you have the attributes we require you will be successful in this position and possess the ability to forge a rewarding & fulfilling career with an internationally recognised leading meat production company.

An attractive salary package will be offered to the successful applicant commensurate with skills and experience.

To apply, please fax or email your resume and covering letter to (08) 8532 6737 or bdevey@tandr.com.au noting the closing date for applications is Friday 7th May, 2010.
